NUMBER 41.

We Mourn the Loss of Profits.

GREAT FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR

SALE OF CLOTHING

We are going to make some improvements in our store room after January 1st. The contract is signed and sealed with the contractors—consequently we are compelled to sell our stock or pack it away. We prefer selling it at a sacrifice.

NOTHING RESERVED.

Every suit of Clothes, every Overcoat, every Pair of Pants marked in plain figures. We will just split them in half. This means 50 cents on the dollar. The cheapest sale of fine ready made Clothing in Kentucky.

Our business is not conducted by fakes and guessing schemes. The man that's selling watch chains on the street corner for $1, throwing in a watch just to show his generosity, needs watching. "Bunco Steerers," "Razzle Dazzle" tricksters and green goods sharps always promise great returns from small investments. Intelligent minds are on to the racket, and take no stock in such humbuggery. 'Tis value they want.

100 CENTS WORTH OF GOODS

FOR 100 CENTS IN CASH

Is what we give the people. But at this sale

100 CENTS WORTH AT 50 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR!

Every article in our establishment is ticketed at the lowest price possible. The stamp of durability is on every garment.

If you have not dealt with us, ask your neighbor, who has. We invite you to our store, feeling assured that you will be pleased with our garments and satisfied with the matchless values we offer.

STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

The express office at Greenville was robbed of $300 in goods.

Fire at Princeton destroyed several stores. Total loss about $15,000.

Miss Mahoney, living near Newcastle, committed suicide by shooting herself.

Joseph Connor was shot and killed by two brothers named Carl, at Stepstone, Montgomery county.

Robert Griffin, a barkeeper of Lexington, shot and killed a negro named Albert Harris in self-defense.

Paducah is infested with a gang of sneak thieves, and they manage to elude the vigilance of the police.

Citizens of Paris are trying to organize a creamery at that place for the manufacture of butter and cheese.

In trying to escape the kick of a cow she was milking, Mr. Gibson of Hartford so twisted her own foot that she broke her leg.

H. W. Barker, ex-deputy sheriff of Bell county, has been arrested for embezzling $1,700 of sheriff's funds, and is now in jail.

Joseph Echstine, of Newport, attempted to walk 36 miles in 14 hours on a wager of $100, and he will probably die from overexertion.

The nine-months-old child of W. T. Rudolph, of New Hope, pulled a kettle of boiling water over on itself, scalding it in a horrible manner.

Lee Bain, a young man of Barbourville, fell from a loaded wagon while going down hill, and was run over. He is expected to die of his injuries.

A cloud-burst at Paducah swelled Island creek so that the freshest swept away several rafts of saw logs and created consternation among shanty-boat citizens.

J. W. Davison, a Christian county farmer, claims to have found a nest of 500 reptiles, including some 12 varieties. He had been drinking moonshine, maybe.

Telegrams from Flat Lick have been received at Barbourville asking for a posse, reporting that the Smith-Slusher feud has broken out again and two men have been shot.

Taylor Davis, a policeman, shot and wounded a negro named Lane in a row in Wayne Damran's saloon at Catlettsburg. His recovery is doubtful, but no arrests had been made up to last accounts.

The trial of Ben F. Davis for the killing of Ben Dunn, in Trigg county, Dec. 9, last week resulted in the conviction of the defendant for murder, and he was held to answer at the February term of the Trigg circuit court without bail.

The postoffice at Catlettsburg was entered by burglars, who secured $600 in stamps and currency, and a number of registered letters. Powder was used to blow open the safe. The next day $145 worth of the goods was found in a school house near by.

The grounds of the Lexington racing association were last week sold to a syndicate for $95,000, and the racing inaugurated there in 1826 will be continued, liberal purses to be offered for the spring meeting. The grounds sold embrace about 62 acres.

James Thompson, manager of the Nickel Plate coal company, shot and killed William Logston, a miner, at East Bernstadt, last Thursday. The trouble arose over money matters, and Logston and two friends attempted to intimidate Thompson. The shooting was done in self-defense.

A farmer named McAnich, living at Liberty, in Casey county, paid $400 in cash for a bar of brass, it being represented to him as a gold brick. He never read the papers and didn't know any better. The amount of $1 spent in subscription for his county paper would have saved him several hundred.

Cassell & Price, Lexington, Ky., carry the finest line of dress goods in that city. A lady can take the morning train at Torrent, do her shopping at Lexington, and return on the evening train. The money she will save by buying of Cassell & Price will pay her fare, and she will have an enjoyable trip beside.
